A ROCK ^{FOR} NICK

THE GOOD AND THE BEAUTIFUL LIBRARY

Nick likes rocks. In fact,
it is safe to say he LOVES rocks.

Look
at this
shelf

and this
one

and this one.

One day Mom said, "Nick,
I want to take you on a rock hunt. Will you go?"

Mom and Nick went.

MIKE AND HIS PLANE

THE GOOD AND THE BEAUTIFUL LIBRARY

Mike and Dad sat on the grass. The sun was warm, and the breeze
felt good.

Just then, a truck came.

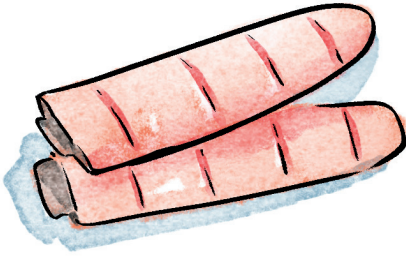

“It is here!” yelled Mike. “It is here!”

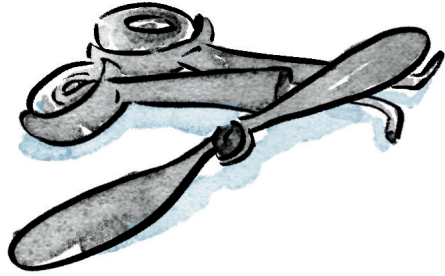

“Yes, it is! Let’s take the box in,” said Dad.

In the box was
this

and this

and that.

MY DAD CAN PLAY

An illustration of a man with short dark hair, wearing a green sweater and yellow pants, sitting on a purple bench and playing a brown upright piano. He is seen from behind, looking at sheet music on the piano. In the foreground, the backs of several children's heads are visible as they watch him play. The background is a vibrant blue with swirling patterns and musical notes. The title 'MY DAD CAN PLAY' is written in large, white, dashed letters, with musical notes interspersed between the words.

My dad plays all the time, but not the way I play.

I play with blocks and
cars and dolls.

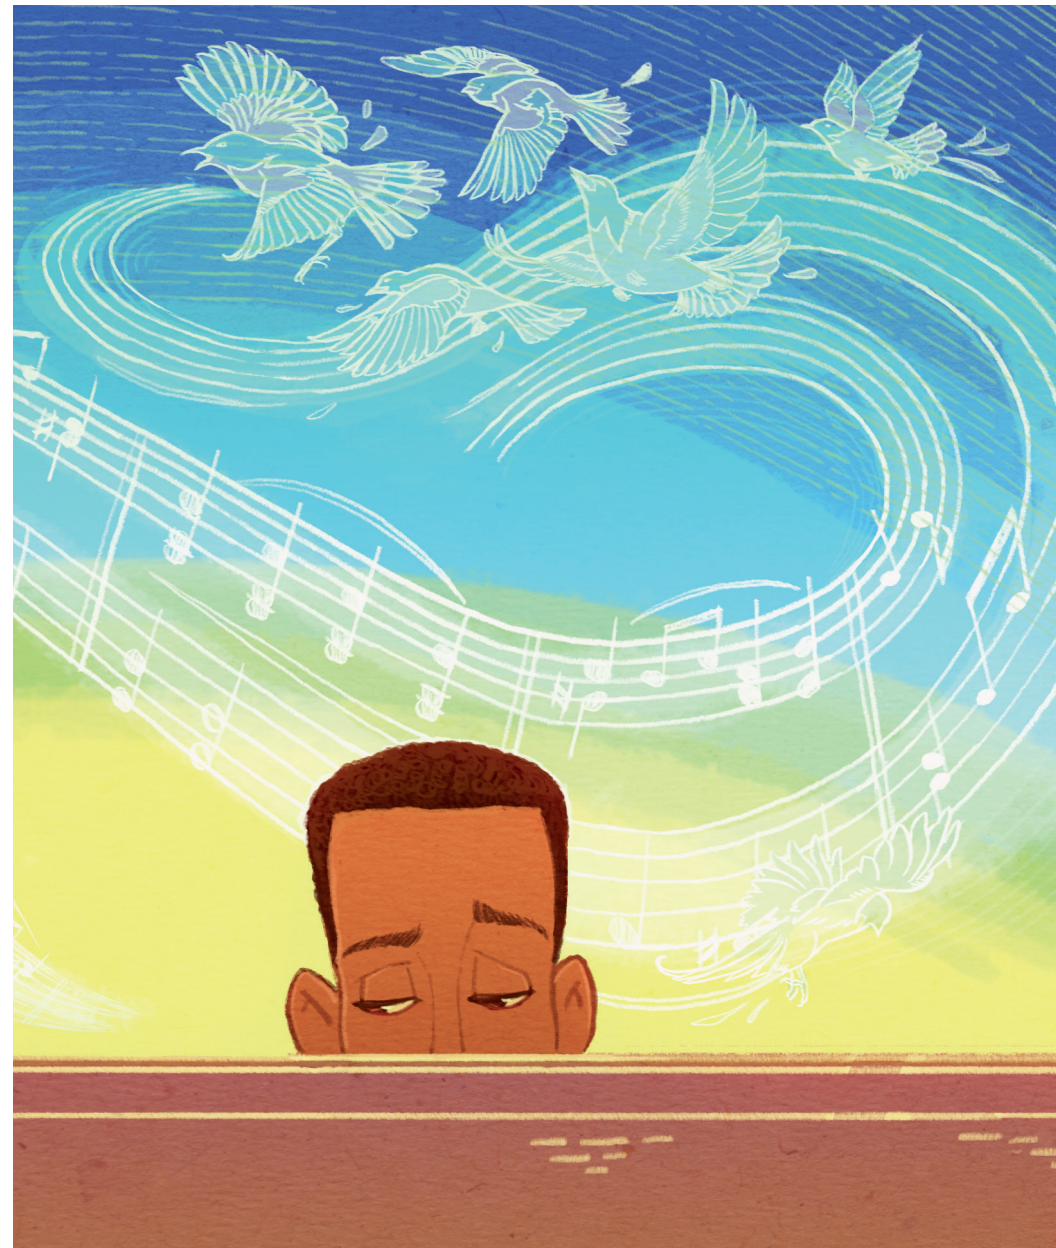

Dad plays songs for
Mom and me.

He can play soft, sweet
songs like a bird.

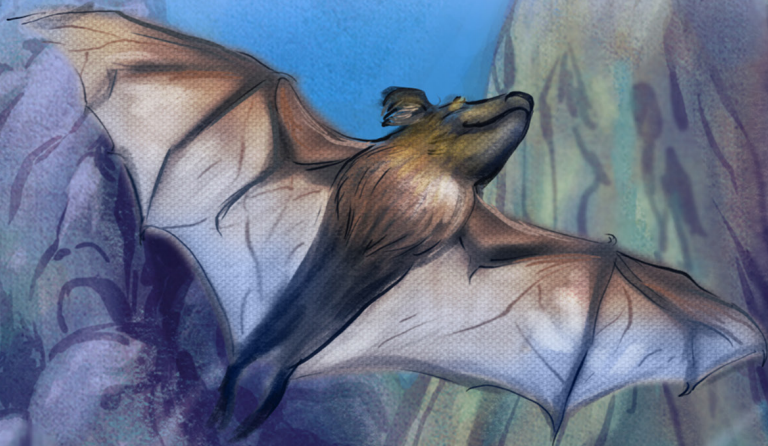

Some songs make us cry,
but we do not feel sad.

THE BAT CAVE

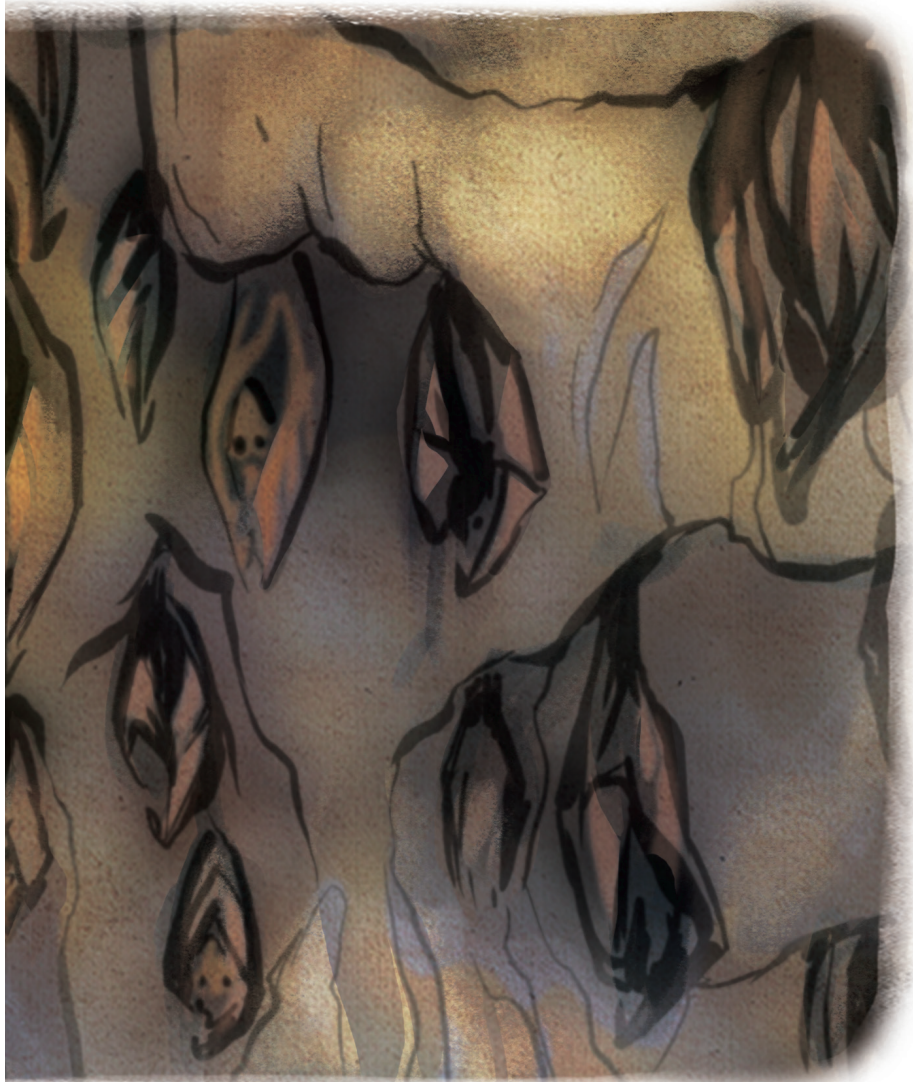

THE GOOD AND THE BEAUTIFUL LIBRARY

It is day, but it is dark in the cave. A lot of bats sleep in the cave. They will sleep all day.

Now the sun is not up. It is dark on the hill.

The bats wake up. It is time to fly, fly, fly!

The bat named Zack
glides in the dark sky.

THE BIG MESS

THE GOOD AND THE BEAUTIFUL LIBRARY

Rose loves her mom.

She wants to help her.

One day Mom was in the yard.

“I will make Mom a cake!” said Rose.

She got
out this,

this,

and these.

“I will start with this,” said Rose. She put in two cups,

but the rest fell. Oh, it is a bit of a mess.

YARN HATS

THE GOOD AND THE BEAUTIFUL LIBRARY

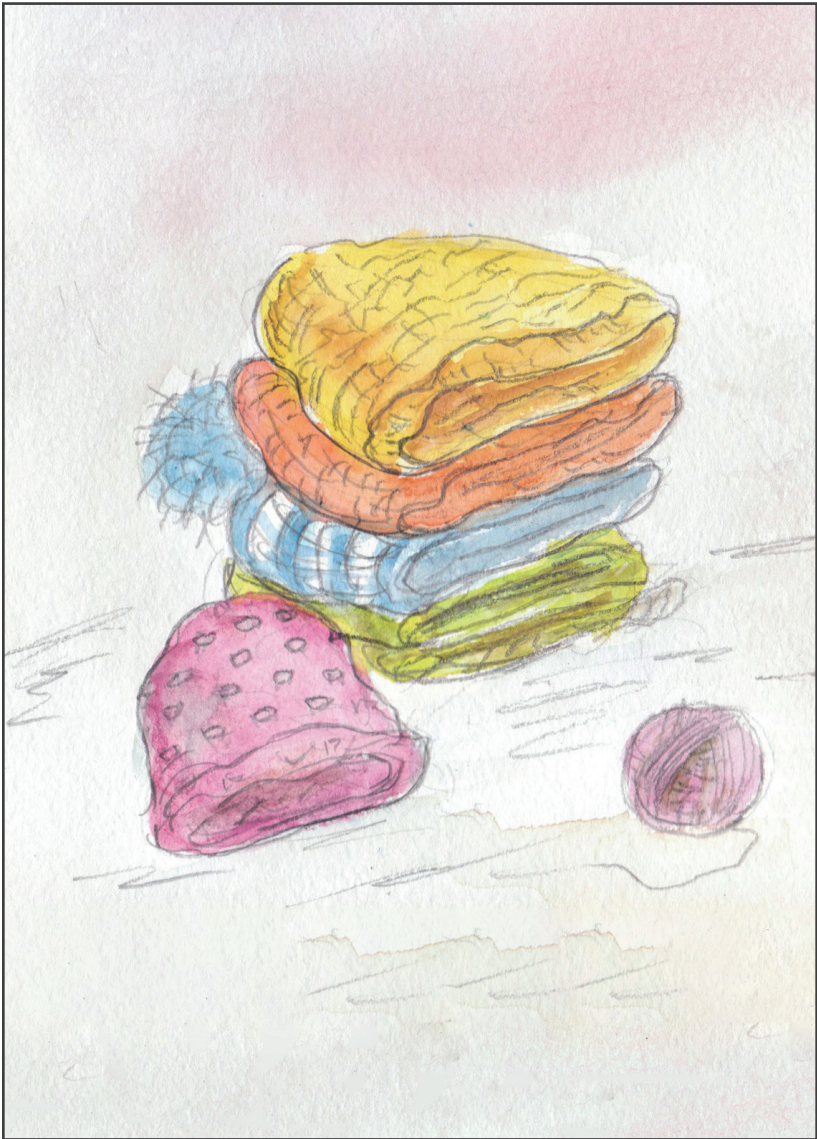

I like to make yarn hats
with Mom.

Look! Mom made a big green hat. It is so cute!

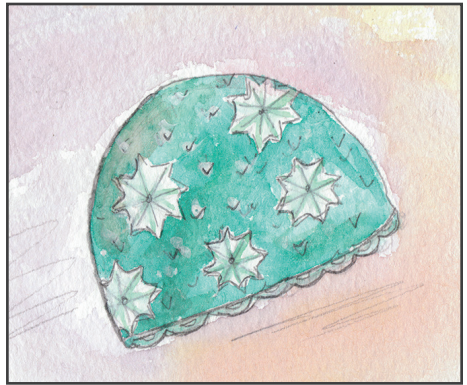

We make hats with
stripes, hats with dots,

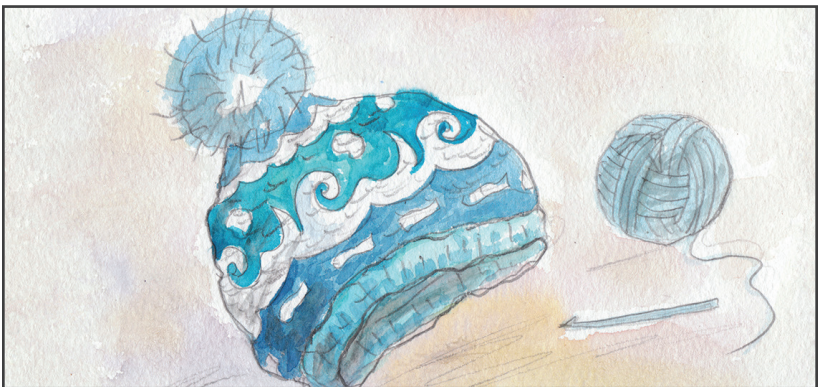

and hats
like this,

this,

and that.

Look at this big pile of hats!
Now we can take

them to sick boys and girls.
